

COMPARISON OF TASC'S SECTION 125 SERVICES VERSUS OTHER ADMINISTRATORS

Other Section 125 Administrators	TASC
Do bundled Section 125 services with other insurance services.	TASC's services are product-neutral, allowing clients to change insurance products without affecting Section 125 services.
Do charge separate fees for 5500 processing, enrollment, administration, documents, and changes to documents.	Our rates are extremely competitive and are all-inclusive , including 5500 preparation.
Do not offer clients customer support and/or further guidance.	TASC's clients have toll-free access to highly trained customer service representatives and have 24-hour access to account balances via the internet and telephone.
Do not offer short plan years.	TASC allows the versatility of short plan years.
Do not keep clients informed of important legislative and compliance issues.	TASC distributes periodic updates of legislative changes as an ongoing educational tool for clients.
Do not explain the ramifications of running disability premiums through the plan to clients.	TASC educates agents/clients on ramifications of disability premiums being run through 125.
Do not perform non-discrimination testing.	TASC's services include non-discrimination testing.
Do not distribute summary plan descriptions to employees.	TASC's services include distribution of summary plan descriptions.
Do not file Form 5500's for their clients (as required by law).	TASC's services include 5500 filing at the end of each plan year.
Do not offer an audit guarantee, leaving clients liable for IRS penalties/fines.	TASC includes an audit guarantee.
Do not offer timely reimbursements.	TASC processes reimbursement checks on a daily basis. TASC also offers on-line submission of reimbursement claims and direct deposit of reimbursement checks.
Do not offer reimbursements unless pre-paid by the employee.	TASC does not require employees to pre-pay for services. TASC also accepts facsimile reimbursement requests, to ensure expeditious reimbursement processing.

The information contained in this communication is confidential and is to be used by TASC employees and representatives for its intended purpose only.